Antioch Beats Grant at New Gym Opener; Play Glenbrook Next

Sequoits Get Revenge Over Bulldogs for Earlier Defeat at Antioch

The Antioch Sequoits got revenge for an early-season defeat at the hands of the Grant Bulldogs Friday night when they beat the Ingleside team 65 to 57 before a crowd of 7,000 persons who jammed the new Grant gymnasium for the opening game.

It was Antioch all the way even with the last quarter rally by the Bulldogs which brought them to within five points of the Sequoits.

The victory encouraged the local team and the boys will go to Northbrook tomorrow evening bent on vengeance against Glenbrook which humiliated them on the Antioch floor 74 to 41 earlier in the season.

"The boys played their best game yet this season," commented Coach Larry Leon, "They showed lots of spirit and good team play."

Grant players said the game for them was like playing on a neutral court because they had never had opportunity to practice on the large gymnasium floor just completed.

This did not take away any of the credit for the victory for Antioch. The Sequoits established a tight zone defense and scrapped all the way. The score was 17-12 at the quarter, 35-28 at the half, and 49-39 going into the fourth quarter.

Jerry Huml paced the Sequoits with 19 points, while Jim Fish and Al Reckers got 12 and Frank Walsh 10. Danny Hodge led the scoring for Grant with 18 points.

Oil Truck and Motor Burn in Fires Tuesday

An oil truck belonging to Dudley Kennedy, Standard Oil Co. dealer, caught fire Tuesday forenoon while he was on Highland Ave. near the Kemp resort at Petite lake, and was badly damaged before the fire department arrived from Antioch.

The firemen extinguished the blaze in a minute with their modern equipment, but already $700 damage had been done.

Carl Pachay, of Park avenue, was the driver of the truck, and was in the process of making home deliveries. He told Deputy Sheriff Robert Sachs he pulled up to a customer's house with his tank truck containing 300 gallons of oil and was preparing to pull out a hose when he noticed smoke coming from under the truck.

Pachay said he checked the source and found the entire undercarriage burning. He tried to douse the flames with a fire extinguisher from the truck but was unsuccessful.

The driver was then said to have driven the burning truck away from the house to a nearby field and called the fire department.

A half hour after this fire the firemen were called to the Morley Subdivision on the north shore of Lake Catherine where a motor to a pump at the Bud Block residence became overheated and caught fire.

Chief Edgar Simonsen said the fire was confined to the motor which is a loss.

C. F. Spiering Home Looted of $9,000 in Cash and Valuables

Burglars "Peel" Safe, Clean Rte. 45 Residence of Prize Possessions

Burglars looted the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Spiering on Rte. 45 near Rte. 173 of valuables estimated at $9,000 Saturday.

The break-in was discovered at 9:30 a. m. Sunday by the daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Leable of Wadsworth, who made a routine check of the home while the Spierings were vacationing at Tampa, Fla.

Mrs. Leable checked the residence at 2 p. m. Saturday and found everything in order, but when she returned Sunday she first noticed that the greenhouse door was open. Next she found a chime clock pulled from the wall, and then went to the office of Mr. Spiering in the northeast corner of the building and there found a large safe broken open and its valuable contents gone.

She sought immediately to call her parents, but in her excitement overlooked their address and telephone number on a desk, and sent her husband, Lloyd, home to get it.

The Spierings left within 30 minutes after they received the message and arrived home early Tuesday morning.

They discovered their loss consisted of:

A mink coat valued at $2,100; a mink scarf, valued at $300, a beaver coat, a $75 kodak camera and $150 slide projector; a pair of binoculars; a portable typewriter, a silver service for 12, all taken from the safe. Cash taken included $500 in currency and $80 in silver dollars.

The Skokie Products Co. canning plant at Trevor, Wis., was destroyed by fire Saturday night with a loss estimated between $10,000 and $20,000.

Pickles and sauerkraut are processed there each fall.

The Antioch, New Salem and Wilmot departments were called in to help the Trevor fire department fight the blaze, but they found the building beyond saving when they they arrived.

The frame one-story building 140 x 60 feet in dimension caught fire about 11:20 p. m. and soon was a mass of flames.

Fire Chief Harry Dexter said the fire apparently started in the west wall where there were electrical outlets.

The flames lighted up the sky and could be seen for many miles. Telegraph poles and lines along the Soo Line track were damaged, and warning was sent to nearby stations along the line to stop trains that might be passing before the fire was put under control.

Dry with temperatures above normal characterized the month of January according to the weather records of Cooperative Observer Roy Kufalk.

The highest temperature for the month was 43 degrees on the 5th and 14th.

The lowest recordings were five below on the 22nd, two below on the 21st and zero on the 23rd.

Sale of Aqua Center Bonds Lively After "Kick-off" Meeting

Blueprints of Pool Ready for Delivery by Architect This Evening

Although one or two of the Lions Club sales teams will not go into action until this weekend, sale of bonds for the new Antioch Township Aqua Center is progressing highly satisfactory, William Brook, campaign director, announced today.

The kick-off meeting last Friday at the Rescue Squad headquarters was an enthusiastic one and the captains of the teams felt certain that the sales campaign can be wound up in a short time if the weather is such that the members can make their contacts.

Chairman Brook said that already some sizeable purchases have been reported, some of them coming in by mail. He said that no attempt will be made this week to total sales, but that this will be done next week.

President George W. Jensen and the Board of Directors of the Lions Community Service Corp. which is the legal organization in charge of the project, will meet this evening with the architects, Walton and Walton, Evanston, who promised to have the blue-prints ready for inspection and approval.

Approval will mean that the corporation will be ready to advertise for bids as soon as the bonds are sold. The directors are anxious to have the pool ready by June 1 so that the community can benefit fully from it this summer.

Chairman Brook said that he is in hope that the bond purchasers will not delay so that the construction work can be started as soon as weather will permit.

McMillen Proclaims Navy Sign Up Month

Mayor James W. McMillen has designated February as Navy Sign-up Month during which young men are encouraged to enlist.

In posing with a recruiting officer, J. L. Long, Mayor McMillen, himself a Navy man, donned his lieutenant commander's uniform which he took off in leaving service in 1945 and which he hasn't had on since, to make the proclamation "official."

Mayor McMillen served the Navy with distinction. He was cited during World War II by Admiral Chester W. Nimitz for "emritorious and efficient performance of duty" while as lieutenant commander he served in Noumea, New Caledonia as shore patrol officer and officer in charge of the island's receiving station. He was discharged in 1945 at the Great Lakes Naval Training center.

Chief Long said "his honor was easy to convince" on the Navy Sign Up project.

Economic Highlights

A century, put in historical perspective, is only a moment. Yet within the last century, and mostly within its final 50 years, the economic and social structure of this and other Western countries has undergone thorough change.

That point was made by T. S. Petersen, president of the Standard Oil Company of California, in an address before a group of visiting Japanese businessmen. He added: "Is it any wonder that many people still do not understand what has happened, and is still happening." Then he went on to describe the development of the modern business philosophy, with particular emphasis on the change in the character and role of management.

In an earlier and simpler era, such manufacturing as existed was carried on by individuals or small groups. Their activities had little effect on the welfare of anyone but themselves. They could do whatever they liked, within the limitations of the laws of the time.

Then came the corporation—and a new age. The corporation, by enabling many people to combine manpower and money, was able to meet the public's wants with unprecedented efficiency and celerity. At the same time, as Mr. Petersen said, "The corporation's great power was subject to misuses and abuses. . . . Something had to be done . . . to make certain that the great power of the corporation would be used for good and not for bad."

Thus, a system of checks and balances—analagous to those within our three-branched federal government—came into being. The groups exercising the checks and balances are the stockholders, the employes, the customers, the government, and the general public. To quote Mr. Petersen again, "Each of these groups has an important influence on the way we conduct our business—and rightly so."

Yet these groups often have conflicting desires and interests. The stockholder wants the highest dividends and the lowest costs which will make them possible—while the employe wants the highest wages. The customer wants the lowest prices, and the government and the general public may want various other things. That brings up a problem faced by the managers of industry: Where do they stand and where should their loyalties lie in this conflict of interests?

Before answering, Mr. Petersen described the position of the manager in modern industrial America. He is a paid employe. In the past, by comparison, owner and manager were generally one and the same person. Today's manager usually has only a small stock interest in the corporation he represents. Thus, in Mr. Petersen's phrase, "he is basically a supervisor, or overseer."

From this, Mr. Petersen has shaped a philosophy of management which fits the conditions of the present—and vividly indicates the virtual revolution that has taken place in 50 years or so. It is this: "The foremost objective of management, is to balance the conflicts and differences of interested groups, to the end that none enjoys an advantage at the expense of another."

"Onward for God and My Country"

The Boy Scouts of America observes its 46th birthday during Boy Scout Week, February 6 to 12, with its membership at an all-time high of 4,100,000 boys and adult leaders. Since 1910 more than 24½ million Americans have shared in its leisure-time program. There is scarcely an American family that does not know of Scouting at first hand.

To mark this birthday the organization launches a Four-Year Program with the theme "Onward for God and My Country."

The Boy Scouts of America seek "through organized and trained man power to give an increasingly better program to an increasing number of the nation's youth," says Dr. Arthur A. Schuck, Chief Scout Executive, and to "help today's youth to 'Be Prepared' as citizens of character, to be prepared in body, skill, spirit, will, and as a member of a team."

The Chief Scout Executive feels that this program is launched at a time when it is evident that increased emphasis on our free way of life is important. For the safety and welfare of the United States, he holds, a patriotism of the highest type is essential, a patriotism built on a firm spiritual foundation.

"As Scouting now influences the lives of three million boys," he says, "we must help them to the realization and acceptance of God as the guiding power of the universe. We must interpret and find additional methods to help a Scout in his own religious life to fulfill his obligation to God as stated in the Scout Oath and Law."

The "Onward for God and My Country," program also seeks to give youth opportunities to develop physical fitness, self-reliance, a sense of personal responsibility, a spirit of helping people, a willingness to share, and an understanding of government's democratic processes.

It is a program worthy of the support of all Americans interested in youth.

Mother Is Still Keeper of Keys To Medicine Chest

NEW YORK—The mother of the family—custodian of medicines and administratrix of treatments since pharmacy was superstition rather than science—is still the key gal as keeper of the cures.

In olden days the ladies manufactured their own home cures. Today, science supplies ready-packaged potent pills and other paraphernalia, for colds or cold feet. But it's still the lady of the house that minds the medicine chest, just as in previous times when the treatments weren't as good—but just as interesting.

The cold itself was a veritable repository for odd treatments, probably because it even then affected so many that there was bound to be a plethora of favorite "remedies." Old "medicine books," for instance, list the following treatments for colds and sore throats: a piece of fat meat with pepper tied around the neck was supposed to work wonders; the grease from a Christmas goose was said to be invaluable; mustard and onion poultices were de rigeur in thousands of households; rock candy and whiskey were looked upon with extreme fondness.

A leading superstition that drew a lot of adherents was if you ate from a blue dish, wore a blue ribbon, drank tonic from a blue bottle and downed a quart of stolen milk—your cold would vanish. Presumably into the blue.

Rare Minerals Laboratory-Made

LOS ANGELES—By subjecting minerals to combinations of temperatures and pressures considerably higher than those previously achieved in the laboratory, UCLA geophysicists have created minerals rarely found near the earth's surface.

Using a laboratory device called the "simple squeezer," conditions that formed minerals at extreme depths in the earth's crust have been duplicated.

From common quartz they have created coesite—a dense mineral which can exist only 40 miles or more deep in the earth. They have made jade from feldspar and aragonite from limestone.

The scientists have also been able to make various dense aluminous minerals from ordinary clay. From data on temperatures and pressures required to make these minerals, the depths at which similar minerals are formed in the earth's crust can be determined.

War Hero Safe Expert Just Peacetime Crook

EDINBURGH, Scotland—A safe cracker who turned commando to blast open safes and lift secret enemy war plans in World War II is back in jail for practicing his craft in peacetime.

The skill which brought the praise of Allied intelligence chiefs ten years ago brought a 10-year sentence this time to John Ramsey, 50.

Ramsey parachuted behind enemy lines many times during the war and one of his most notable victims was Hermann Goering, whose Luftwaffe headquarters safe was cracked by Ramsey. His recent arrest came for cracking a safe in Glasgow and taking a puny $45 in cash and $4.50 in stamps.

The war hero pleaded for leniency, but the law was firm.

"From your conduct and history," said the judge, "you cannot be trusted to abstain from crime.

Policeman Liable in Shooting of Bystander

TRENTON, N. J.—A policeman who injured a bystander while shooting at a fleeing petty thief is liable for damages, the Appelate Division of the New Jersey Supreme Court has ruled.

The court ordered a new trial in a $15,000 suit against a Newark patrolman, Martin Hellwig. Plaintiff was Miss Violet W. Davis, 21, who was struck in the hip by a bullet two years ago.

The decision said that Hellwig "committed an unjustifiable, illegal and wrongful act in discharging his gun at the fugitive petty thief."

The thief got away unhurt.

1955 Health Record Good—1956 Outlook Also Favorable

NEW YORK—In 1955 the health record of the American people appeared exceptionally good and the prospects for 1956 seem even more favorable.

The death rate for the year, 9.2 per 1,000 population in the United States, is close to the 1954 figure, the lowest on record. This marks the eighth successive year for which the death rate for the country has been below 10 per 1,000 population. In 1945, only one decade ago, the death rate was 10.6 per 1,000 population, one-sixth above the level for 1955.

A notable feature of the 1955 record is another substantial reduction in mortality from tuberculosis. For the first time the death rate from this disease is somewhat less than 10 per 100,000 of the population. This represents a decline of about one-tenth from the previous year. Just one decade ago, in 1945, the tuberculosis death rate was almost four times the 1955 level.

Mortality from influenza and pneumonia continued at a low level in 1955.

Grocery Sales Setting New Highs

NEW YORK—Food and grocery consumption in 1955 set a new high record and even further increases are in prospect for 1956, according to Paul S. Willis, president, Grocery Manufacturers of America. "Total consumer food expenditures in 1955 have apparently established a new all-time record of about $68 billion, compared with $64½ billion in 1954 and $16 billion in 1939," he said, "and with population continuing to grow, and with consumer income on the increase, food spending can readily top $71 billion next year."

Taking a longer look ahead, Mr. Willis forsees the distinct possibility of a $100 billion annual food expenditure by 1965—provided grocery manufacturers and distributors meet the increasingly effective competition of other industries bidding so vigorously for a larger share of the consumer's dollar.

A recent study showed "name" brands to be a big factor in 1955 sales. For 41 commodity groups surveyed, major advertised brands accounted for 76 per cent of the market as compared with 74 per cent in 1951. Stores stocking seven brands of a given classification has sales ranging from 48 per cent to 375 per cent greater than stores stocking only one brand.

Motorcycle Accidents Kill Thousand Yearly

NEW YORK—Accidents involving motorcycles account for approximately 1,000 deaths yearly in the United States, statisticians of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company report.

About 800 of these deaths result from injuries sustained by motorcyclists or motorcycle passengers, and most of the remainder are pedestrians killed by motorcycles. In addition, a few deaths each year occur among riders of bicycles and occupants of automobiles in collisions between vehicles and motorcycles.

In the life insurance company's experience among its industrial policyholders, the highest death rates for motorcycles, as might be expected, are among young males—ages 15 to 24.

Somewhat over half of the policyholders fatally injured while riding motorcycles died as a result of collisions with automobiles, trucks or other motor vehicles. An additional two-fifths lost their lives when motorcycles overturned or run off the road.

Sunday School Lesson Puts Parent on Spot

LONG BEACH, Calif. — Mrs. John Fredericks is somewhat in a dither about the business of talking over Sunday school lessons with her daughter. The little girl came home and said, "The teacher told us that before people are born they are dust and that they return to dust when they die. Is that true, Mommy?"

If it was taught at Sunday school, it was true, Mrs. Fredericks replied. "Why do you ask, honey?"

"Well," the youngster drawled, "I just looked under my bed and someone is either coming or going."

Wrong Prescription

OKLAHOMA CITY—Not even his "doctor's orders" could save a beer-tippling Oklahoma City man.

After his arrest, Hoover V. Hampton told Judge Mike Foster he'd drunk only two beers as prescribed by his physician. The judge was skeptical. He fined Hampton $20 for reckless driving by drinking.

Monte Carlo Often Has Its Share Of Money Problems

WASHINGTON — Monaco, second smallest nation in the world, where Monte Carlo traditionally symbolizes flowing wealth, has money troubles just like the rest of the global family.

Ordinarily, financial affairs tie easily together in the 370-acre state on the Ligurian Sea by the French Riviera. Monaco functions on tobacco taxes, postage stamp sales and fees from Monte Carlo's casino and its gambling concession. But a recent run on Monaco's biggest bank, The Monte Carol Banking and Precious Metals Society, despite hurried government assistance, caused the bank to close its doors. With it fell four cabinet ministers.

Monte Carlo's ornate salons of chance by law may not be patronized by citizens of Monaco. Numbering only 2,000 in a cosmopolitan population of 23,000, they may work in Monte Carlo's gambling rooms, hotels and resorts, but they are not permitted to gamble. In return, Monacans pay no income tax.

Monaco is world renown as a vacation spot and visitors long remember the sight of pastel-hued villas in the sun-drenched foothills of the Maritime Alps. Sports lure many visitors.

Catching Grandma In Baby Department

LOS ANGELES—If the rate at which today's young women are having babies is maintained they may have families as large as their grandparents and great-grandparents.

So says Dr. Ruth Riemer, sociologist of the University of California, who has been making a study of birth rates.

Last year more than 4,000,000 American women had babies. Almost as many of them were having their second child as were having their first. This is the first time since accurate birth records have been kept that this situation has occurred. A surprisingly large number of women had their fifth child.

Not only are today's women having more babies than their jazz age and depression era parents, they are having them at an earlier age. According to latest statistics, one out of every two married women already has had a baby by the time she reaches her 21st birthday.

All-Purpose Policy Newest in Insurance

LOS ANGELES—Insurance coverage is undergoing great changes today and the time may not be far off when one all-purpose policy will protect you—financially at least—from all of life's perils.

This is the prediction of Dr. Richard M. Heins, assistant professor of insurance on the Los Angeles campus of the University of California. He points out that insurance companies are increasing the number of risks covered by single policies.

Companies are now experimenting with policies which will protect the insured party for the whole spectrum of risks including all physical loss for dwellings and contents and personal property, comprehensive personal liability, and complete automobile coverage.

Addition of a life insurance policy to this all-purpose property-casualty policy would complete the average person's protection.

Public demand for fewer individual policies with broader protection has spurred the growth of such multiple-risk policies.

Felled Deer Causes Hunting Accident

SMITH VALLEY, Nev.—Edward Stanley, 30, Weed Heights, was hunting near here and shot a buck. Just another hunting story up to this point, but Stanley's buck was different—it shot back.

Stanley walked up to the fallen animal, placed his loaded rifle on a rock, and started to cut the deer's throat.

The buck gave one final kick, hit the rifle, causing it to fire. Down went Stanley with a bullet in his knee.

Doctors at Veterans Hospital, Reno, reported the knee-cap broken but otherwise the chagrined Stanley was in good condition.

Needs More Exercise

DETROIT—A traffic court defendant blamed his speeding on his shoe. "I had on heavy work shoes and couldn't seem to lift my foot off the gas pedal," he said.

Judge John D. Watts suggested that he take a muscle-building course, fined him $25 and suspended his driver's license.

High Income Group Increases

During the past five years, the $10,000 and-up income group has grown by 90 per cent. This class, which is economically important, includes the upper middle class, the well-to-do and the so-called rich. But it represents only 7 per cent of the total number of families in the country.—The Knplinger Letter.

WE KNEW IT WAS GOOD -but oh, brother!

It started right on announcement day.

On that day, we made bold to call this the Best Buick Yet. (A pretty big statement, we're sure you'll agree.)

But, in the scant three months since then, we've had ample proof of how more-than-right we were—

Not just from the tremendous initial interest shown in the new 1956 Buicks—

Not alone from the way our sales have zoomed past all expectations—

But more especially and more clearly and more positively from the enthusiastic "play back" that's coming from happy new-Buick owners.

So, if you'd like the story firsthand—see if you can get a '56 Buick owner to stand still long enough to tell it to you.

For it's a real news story you'll hear about:

You'll hear about a walloping-big new 322-cubic-inch V8 engine that delivers its record-high power with the obedience of a bird dog.

You'll hear about a terrific new Variable Pitch Dynaflow* that gives double-action take-off and instant acceleration right in the driving range—along with a thrifty boost in gas-saving mileage. Yet, when you do floor the pedal to switch the pitch—you get an extra abundance of safety-surge power to pull out of tight spots on the highway.

You'll hear about a new "sweetness" of ride made even more buoyant by deep-oil cushioning and all-coil springing—and about a new ease of handling and steering—and a new four-footed sureness when taking the turns.

So what's left to be told?

Except the news of brilliant new Buick styling inside and out—which you can see for yourself. And the question, "How much?"—which only you can answer.

For, you can go all the way from the bedrock-priced Special—to the high-stepping Century—to the outstanding Super—and on to the custom-built Roadmaster.

Why not come in—right soon? Learn how easy we'll make it for you to step into the '56 Buick circle—without busting out of your budget.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

$5,000 to $10,000 Income Group Growing Fast

The number of families making $5,000 to $10,000 increased 80 per cent in the past five years, according to the Kiplinger Washington Letter. In 1950, there were 8.7 million such families, just 19 per cent of all families. In 1955, there were 15.7 million families in this income bracket, and they represented 32 per cent of all families.

Kiplinger editors point out that this expansion of "middle incomes" is largely responsible for the boom in sales of autos, houses and appliances.

Correspondingly, the number of low-income families is shrinking. Families with incomes of less than five thousand dollars have decreased by 5.2 million, a drop of 15 per cent. There is still poverty, but it is diminishing progressively.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the United States Navy has defended our nation's shores against attack for one hundred and eighty years, and it is important to the welfare of our nation that we ensure that the United States Navy is adequately manned at all times and ready to meet any emergency requiring its services, and

WHEREAS, many additional volunteers are urgently needed to bring our Naval forces up to full authorized strength and to assure our citizens that the Navy will always remain our first line of defense, the Navy is currently conducting "Operation Sign-Up" throughout the United States, in order to enlist the largest number of volunteers possible, and

WHEREAS, Illinois sailors have always played a prominent role in Naval History by being fighting men second to none, and

WHEREAS, within the State of Illinois, is the Navy's largest Recruit Training Center at Great Lakes, and

WHEREAS, the Headquarters for the Chief of Naval Air Reserve Training in the United States is located at Glenview, Illinois:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that I, JAMES W. McMILLEN, as Mayor of the Village of Antioch, do hereby proclaim the month of February, 1956, as NAVY SIGN-UP MONTH and urge all citizens of this Village during this period to assist the Navy Recruiters in procuring the assigned quota of men in order that our Navy will aways remain our first line of defense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Seal of the Village of Antioch on this 31st day of January, 1956.

Here's An Answer To Cuticle Problem

Rough, splitting cuticle that catches and tears may respond to a weekly lotion routine. Begin your cuticle care program by pouring a small amount of creamy baby lotion into a cup; then dip fingertips in the lotion keeping them there while you watch your favorite television program.

After the softening lotion bath, wash the hands with warm soapy water. Use the ball of the thumb to push the softened cuticle back. A weekly babying with baby lotion will keep cuticle soft and pliable.

Then, every day, after washing your hands, use a rough terry towel to ease the moist cuticle back gently from the nail. Every night, rub around each fingertip with the same softening lotion. Following these daily rituals faithfully helps coax nail "moons" into the picture.

People Are Moving Less

Since World War II, shifting from state to state and place to place has lessened progressively. In the past year only five million people moved from one state to another, 126 million stayed put—same house, same city.—The Kiplinger Letter.

Marriage Boom Ahead

Only 1.5 million marriages occurred in 1955, as compared with 2.3 million in postwar 1946. But by 1960, there will be a new wave of marriages resulting from the boom in births in the 40's. About 2 million a year.—The Kiplinger Letter.

Lake Villa to Have New Rescue Squad; To Organize Next Week

A movement to fill the long-left need for a first aid rescue squad at Lake Villa will soon be satisfied if plans of the Community club there can be brought to culmination.

At a meeting of interested persons held last night (Wednesday) at the home of Winsor Dalgaard in Lake Villa a committee composed of Matt Lau, Walter Bloss, and Harold A. Bestorp was appointed to study means of financing the new squad.

Some funds for the purpose are already available, and general enthusiasm for the project make its success a foregone conclusion, according to sponsors.

The committee will meet within the next few days to make final plans for a program to raise funds for the project.

C. F. Spiering Home....

nearly $1,000 comprised a .22 caliber pistol; .12 gauge Marlin pump shotgun; .16 gauge L. S. Smith shotgun; .410 gauge double barreled shotgun; a 30-30 rifle; a 30-06 rifle; a .22-caliber Winchester rifle; a .38 caliber Colt police special revolver and a .22 caliber Smith and Wesson revolver.

Also taken was camping equipment including a 12 x 12 foot tent, a two-man tent, a three-burner Coleman camp stove, a folding table and chair set, and a quantity of fishing tackle.

A Zenith radio also was taken.

The safe was one that Mr. Spiering purchased a number of years ago to protect his stamp collection from fire. The thieves took only the uncancelled U. S. mint stamps and discarded the others.

Experts to the highest degree the safe crackers used the "peeling" method in which the combination was knocked off and a crowbar then used to force the tumblers and the inner lock. The safe was 7x4x4 feet in size.

Ransacked House Two Months Ago

The Spierings are of the opinion that the burglars were the same ones who broke into the house through a south bedroom window about two months ago. Although they ransacked the house at that time they took nothing although the piggy banks were in plain sight.

It is believed that they cased the place at that time and returned with equipment and a conveyance better to handle the loot. This time they entered through a west bedroom window.

In their belief that there might be concealed wall safes the burglars ripped off a large mirror from the wall and near it a chime clock.

The burglars went to a furnished basement and there took the sporting equipment and with it a large quantity of liquor from a cabinet.

'The thieves were choosey throughout the ransacking, and apparently knew what had the most value and which the least, especially in the gun collection," said Mrs. Spiering.

The piggy banks were hammered on the living room floor.

Sheriff Stanley Christian and Investigator Norris Froelich inspected the building for clews and went to return today for a further search of evidence.

An electric blanket and other bedclothing taken from a bed were evidently used over the windows to screen any of the action of the burglars.

They were of the opinion that the burglars studied the place thoroughly over a period of time and knew just when the Leables came and left the residence.

Insurance Doesn't Cover Loss

After the place was ransacked the first time, the Spierings obtained burglary insurance of $5,000, believing that it would be sufficient because they didn't think a burglar would be able to get in the safe where their property of greatest value was placed.

The insurance doesn't cover more than $100 cash loss and the other restrictions will reduce the coverage to 50 per cent of the policy.

Mrs. Spiering is well known in Antioch through her activity and leadership in the Woman's club, of which she is president. Mr. Spiering owns the northwest, and both south corners of the intersection of Rte. 45 and Rte. 173 known as Hickory Corner.

WHO PAYS?

"GIMMICKS, GIVE AWAYS, FREE TRIPS, NOTHING DOWN AND PROMISES TO BEAT ANY DEAL," WE ASK YOU WHO PAYS FOR THEM?

Buying a car is a serious investment . . . be sure you aren't tricked into a deal which is false economy. True, one of the joys of earning a living is spending the fruits of your labor where and when you please. For the most part there are no strings attached to the income at your disposal. Only common sense governs expenditures.

It's truly unfortunate, but soon people from Antioch will have fallen prey to the "city boys'" glib offers of gigantic savings, longer than healthy terms, and other gimmicks. In the final showdown most have learned to their dismay that they actually LOST MONEY on their "tremendous" deal.

DON'T BE MISLED — every auto dealer must pay the manufacturer the same price for each unit he sells and each dealer must take a profit to stay in business . . . someone has to pay for the gimmicks and the high cost of advertising those "tremendous" deals . . . through the substandard products and service that must go hand in hand with such tactics . . . IS IT YOU?

Your Antioch dealers are in business today — and will be in the years ahead — because, they offer the best automotive quality available and stand solidly behind the cars they sell. The competition between us is keen — but CLEAN!

If one can't sell you we hope the other canbecause we all know that it's good for you and for our community.

Your Antioch Automobile Dealers have a BIG investment in their shops, equipment, tools and parts to be used for your constant and efficient service.

The taxes they pay — on business and home — play a very important part in keeping your taxes equitable.

Fastest Growing States

Arizona, Delaware, Florida, Nevada and New Mexico are at the top of the list in rate of population growth. The Pacific Coast has slowed down a bit in the past four years and didn't grow quite as fast as it did from 1940 to 1950. Florida, with a gain of 19 per cent, has edged out California, which grew 18 per cent in the past four years. In actual number of people, however, California is the leader and its population will probably top even New York state in 1956.—The Kiplinger Letter.

When you want to thaw frozen meat in a hurry, put it in a plastic bag, fasten the end securely, and place it under warm running water. This will hasten defrosting without injuring the meat.

Tests show that cows produce more milk and butterfat if they have at least 6 weeks to 2 months of rest between lactations, reports the February issue of Successful Farming Magazine.
